

Second Voyage

2022 Red Blend

South Australia
13.0% ABV

Second Voyage - the second fleet of ships carrying British convicts and supplies to the colony at Sydney Cove in Port Jackson, Australia, in the year 1790.

Edward Riou captained one of these ships, The Guardian. A provisions ship that struck an iceberg when sailing to Cape of Good Hope to take on more supplies. It was quickly in danger of sinking, never making it to Australia.

COLOR

Cherry red with purple hues.

BOUQUET

A medley of berry fruits with subtle oak notes.

PALATE

A vibrant wine with lively juicy berry fruits, subtle spice and supporting oak, across a softly textured medium-full bodied palate. It's smooth, well-rounded and rewarding, with a refined finish. This wine has the generous flavours and balance to mature well over 5 years.

FOOD MATCH

Perfectly paired with meat-lovers pizza and puttanesca pasta.
